

ACICA Mediation Panel

ACICA maintains a Panel of Mediators and has adopted criteria with respect to membership of the Mediation Panel.

The criteria is as follows:

- (i) Applicants should be senior practitioners with extensive mediation experience, including experience mediating in an international arbitration context.
- (ii) The annual fee should be fixed at 75% of the fee for membership of our arbitration panel (being $AUD330). For panel arbitrators who also wish to be members of the mediation panel, the additional fee is $AUD110.
- (iii) Applicants should either be Nationally Accredited members of a mediation panel constituted by a recognised dispute resolution body such as ACDC, LEADR or IAMA in Australia; or JAMS, AAA or CPR overseas.
- (iv) Applicants will also be required to submit detailed curricula vitae with references, as are applicants to the arbitration panel. Only those persons with extensive mediation experience will be selected. For less experienced applicants, the option of "Associate Membership" will be available, as it is for arbitrator applicants.
