Arbitration Experience

John has represented governments, corporations and high net worth individuals in over sixty international arbitrations, both institutional and ad hoc, including many construction and investment treaty disputes. These arbitrations have had a variety of applicable laws, venues and subject-matters. John's practice focuses on the representation of Asian clients in arbitrations worldwide, and clients from outside Asia in arbitrations taking place in Asia. In addition to his work as counsel, John has been appointed as chairman, sole arbitrator and co-arbitrator in International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) and ad hoc arbitrations.

Career

John Savage is a partner in the international arbitration group of Shearman & Sterling LLP. He is based in the firm's Singapore office and leads the firm's international arbitration practice in Asia. John has been with Shearman & Sterling since 1993, and became a partner of the firm in 2000. John is the co-editor of Fouchard Gaillard Goldman on International Commercial Arbitration (Kluwer, 1999), which is a leading treatise in the field. He has also authored various articles on international arbitration.
